

INC. MAGAZINE REVEALS ANNUAL LIST OF BEST WORKPLACES FOR 2020

R2C is one of the highest-scoring businesses, with standout employee engagement

Huntsville, Alabama (May 6, 2020) – R2C has been named Inc. magazine’s Best Workplaces for 2020. Hitting newsstands May 12 in the May/June 2020 issue, and as part of a prominent Inc.com feature, the list of award recipients is the result of a wide-ranging and comprehensive measurement of American companies that provide exceptional workplaces through vibrant cultures, deep employee engagement, and stellar benefits.

Collecting data from more than 3,000 submissions, Inc. singled out 389 finalists for this year’s list. Each nominated company took part in an employee survey, conducted by Quantum Workplace, on topics including trust, management effectiveness, perks, and confidence in the future. Inc. gathered, analyzed, and audited the data. Then we ranked all the employers using a composite score of survey results. This year, 73.5 percent of surveyed employees were engaged by their work.

The strongest engagement scores came from companies that prioritize the most human elements of work. These companies are leading the way in employee recognition, performance management, and diversity. It is a different playbook from a decade ago, when too many firms used the same template: free food, open work environments, and artifacts of “fun.”

Quote from the President and Chief Executive Officer of R2C

R2C’s President and Chief Executive Officer, Mr. Robert Wilson, stated “As far as what I want people to know about R2C, they need to understand just how good and creative our people are and the focus they have on achieving the mission. When they are put in an environment that allows them to be innovative and come up with great ideas they have the tendency to excel and exceed all expectations, simply put, if we can dream it we can do it.” Mr. Wilson strives to provide a workplace that thrives by hiring and retaining the brightest and the best. As a testament to the success of Mr. Wilson’s leadership and the extraordinary accomplishments of his team, this is the third consecutive year R2C won Inc’s Best Workplaces Award.
